Part 1 – Important Information

About this Document

This is an important document that must be read carefully before making a decision in relation to this insurance (which is not compulsory). The Insurer is responsible for the content of this document.

This document can help You to:

- decide whether this insurance will meet Your needs; and
- compare it with other products You may be considering.

See the “General Definitions” section page for details regarding of terms that have special meaning. In some cases, a word with special meaning may be defined in a specific part of the Policy.

In this Important Information Part 1 only, the reference to “You” and “Your” is limited to the “Named Insured”.

What You Need to Read and Understand

This document contains:

- this Part 1 – Important Information section which contains certain important notices, terms and other information;
- Part 2 – Policy Cover Sections which sets out the covers this insurance can provide (subject to eligibility) and the other standard terms and conditions which will apply to the covers (including any applicable limits and exclusions). It includes “General Definitions” which sets out the special meaning We give to certain words used in the Policy. Other words may be specially defined in a Policy section, term or condition.

If We issue You with a Policy, You will be given a Policy Schedule. The Policy Schedule sets out certain additional terms applicable to Your Policy and other matters specific to You such as the cover You have been issued and the Policy sums insured and Limits of Liability.

The Policy Schedule must be read together with this document and any other documents We agree with You will form part of the Policy that We issue. Where We agree, documents other than this document and the Policy Schedule will form part of the Policy (often called Endorsements), any such documents will be dated and will include a statement identifying them as part of the Policy.

Together they form Your Policy/contract with Us. These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before the contracting insured (Named Insured) enters into an insurance contract (referred to as “You” and “Your” in this notice), You have a duty to tell Us of anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms. You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary, or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for;
- is of common knowledge;
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive Your duty to tell us about.

If You do not tell Us something

If You fail to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure, and We would not have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, had the failure not occurred, We may, subject to applicable law:

- be entitled to cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both; or
- if Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Subject to applicable law or unless We state otherwise, a breach of the duty by one insured affects all insureds in these ways.

Avoiding misrepresentations

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) if You make a misrepresentation to Us before the insurance contract is entered into (this includes before each renewal, extension, variation, replacement or reinstatement of an insurance contract) and We would not have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, had the misrepresentation not occurred, We may, subject to applicable law:

- be entitled to cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both; or
- if Your misrepresentation was fraudulent, refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Subject to applicable law or unless we state otherwise, a breach of the duty by one insured affects all insureds in these ways.

A misrepresentation includes a statement that is in any way false, misleading, dishonest or which does not fairly reflect the truth. For example, a statement of fact that is not true, a statement of opinion that is not the subject of an honestly held belief or a statement of intent that never existed at the time provided. We will not treat something as a misrepresentation merely because You failed to answer a question or gave an obviously incomplete or irrelevant answer to a question.

Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details as this is only a summary.

Answering Our questions

Answers to Our questions help Us decide whether to provide You with insurance and if so, on what terms. When answering Our questions:

- take reasonable care to make sure Your answers are true, honest, up to date and complete in all respects. You may breach the duty if You answer without any care as to its truth or if You only guess or suspect the truth. If in doubt, pause the application and obtain the true facts before answering; and
- if another person is answering for You, We will treat their answers as Yours. In such a case, You should check the questions have been answered correctly on Your behalf by them.

Please note that You have obligations beyond these pre contractual duty of disclosure and avoiding misrepresentation obligations once the contract is entered into, which are set out in the contract terms and applicable law.

Who We Cover

The Policy covers the Named Insured as defined in the "General Definitions" section page 18. They are the persons who enter into the contract with the insurer.

The Policy also extends cover to Additional Insureds as defined in the "General Definitions" section. They are third party beneficiaries entitled to access cover by reason of section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) and not contracting parties.

No insurance is provided in relation to the interest of any persons not specified as being entitled to benefit under the Policy.

For details on the rights and obligations of such third party beneficiaries see "Third Party Beneficiaries" on page 16.

General Insurance Code of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice ("the Code"), which is a voluntary self-regulatory code. The Code aims to raise the standards of practice and service in the insurance industry.

Lloyd's Australia Limited has adopted the Code on terms agreed with the Insurance Council of Australia.

For further information on the Code, please visit www.codeofpractice.com.au.

The Code Governance Committee (CGC) is an independent body that monitors and enforces insurers compliance with the Code.

Privacy Statement

In this Privacy Statement the use of "We", "Our" or "Us" means SURA and the Insurers unless specified otherwise.

In this Privacy Statement the use of personal information includes sensitive information.

We are committed to protecting the privacy of the personal information that You provide to Us.

The Privacy Act 1988 contains the Australian Privacy Principles which require Us to tell You that We collect, handle, store and disclose Your personal and sensitive information for the specific purpose of:

- deciding whether to issue a policy,
- determining the terms and conditions of Your Policy,
- compiling data to help develop and identify other products and services that may interest clients, and
- handling claims.

Personal information is information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- a) whether the information or opinion is true or not;
- b) whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.

Sensitive information includes, amongst other things, information about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, membership of a political organisation, religious beliefs or affiliations, philosophical beliefs, membership of a professional or trade association, membership of a trade union, sexual orientation or practices, criminal record, health information about an individual, genetic information, biometric information or templates.

You have given Us Your consent to collect, use and disclose Your personal information in order to provide You with the relevant services and/or products.

When You give Us personal information about other individuals, We rely on You to have made or make the individual aware that You will or may provide their personal information to Us and the types of other parties and service providers We may provide it to, the relevant purposes We and the other parties and service providers will use it for, and how they can access it. If You have not done or will not do either of these things, You must tell Us before You provide the relevant personal information to Us.

We will protect Your information using physical, technical, and administrative security measures to reduce the risks of loss, misuse, unauthorised access, disclosure and alteration. Some of the safeguards that We use are firewalls and data encryption, physical access controls to Our data centres, and information access authorisation controls.

We disclose personal information to other parties and service providers whom We believe are necessary to assist Us and them in providing the relevant services and/or products. For example, in handling claims, We may have to disclose Your personal information to other parties and service providers such as Our claim management partner, other insurers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, external claims data collectors, investigators and agents, facilitators, assessors or other parties as required by law. We will limit the use and disclosure of any personal information provided by Us to them to the specific purpose for which We supplied it.

We may disclose Your personal information to Our insurers, reinsurers, related entities and service providers overseas where it is reasonably necessary for, or directly related to, the functions, services or activities We provide to You. When We transfer Your information to other countries, including countries which may not have data protection laws that provide the same level of protection that exists in Australia, We will protect the information as described in this Privacy Policy.

If You do not provide the personal information requested and/or do not provide Us with Your consent to the use and disclosure of Your personal information as set out in this Privacy Statement, Your insurance application may not be accepted, or We may not be able to administer Your Policy, or You may be in breach of Your duty of disclosure, the consequences of which are set out under the heading Duty of Disclosure in this document.

We will notify You as soon as possible if Your personal information is involved in a data breach that is likely to result in serious harm to You.

If You would like a copy of Our Privacy Policies, would like to seek access to or correct Your personal information, opt out of receiving materials We send, complain about a breach of Your privacy or You have any query on how Your personal information is collected, stored or used, or any other query relating to Our handling of Your personal information, please contact Us.

Several Liability

The liability of an insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other insurers party to this contract. An insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. An insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other insurer. Nor is an insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that may underwrite this contract.

The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by an insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown in the Policy Schedule.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is an insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with any other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Although reference is made at various parts in this clause to "this contract" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural. The insurers named hereon bind themselves each and for their own part and not one for another.

Each insurer's liability under this contract shall not exceed that percentage or amount of the risk shown against that insurer's name.

Sanctions

We shall not be deemed to provide cover and We shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit under this Policy to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose Us, Our parent company or Our ultimate controlling entity to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, the Commonwealth of Australia, United Kingdom or the United States of America.

How to Make a Claim

To make a claim, contact SURA Construction by email claims@sura.com.au or by phone on (02) 9930 9500. Details about making a claim are shown in the Policy wording under "General Conditions: GC4" on page 30.

Significant Features and Benefits

This Policy contains two types of cover.

Cover	Property/Liability Insured	Description of cover provided
Section 1 Material Damage Cover	Contract Works Pre-Existing Property Insured Property	Covers Insured Events that result in damage to the Contract Works, Pre-Existing Property, or Insured Property subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of this Policy. Details of the cover provided under this section are stated in the Policy wording on page 35.
Section 2 Third Party Liability	Public Liability	Covers Your legal liability to compensate others for bodily injury or damage to their property arising from an Occurrence and subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of this Policy. Details of the cover provided under this section are stated in the Policy wording on page 45.

With each type of cover, a range of additional benefits may be included.

These additional benefits are shown in the Policy wording under:

- Additional Benefits – Section 1 on page 36; and
- Additional Benefits – Section 2 on page 45.

You will need to read this Policy wording, the Policy Schedule, and any Endorsement applicable to Your Policy for a full description of the features and benefits of the Policy.

Some Important Things to Understand About the Cover

The standard cover We provide is set out in the Policy Cover sections in Part 2 starting page 18 (subject to eligibility and acceptance by Us). We may apply additional terms that affect this cover if agreed with You or where permitted by law.

The cover and what We pay can be affected by things such as:

- exclusions which restrict the cover – See for example exclusions applying to Section 1 on pages 40 to 43; exclusions applying to Section 2 on pages 46 to 52, and “General Exclusions Applicable To Section 1 And 2” on page 26;
- compliance with any terms/conditions which impose obligations on You and others who may be covered. See for example conditions applying to Section 1 on page 44 and “General Conditions Applicable To Sections 1 and 2” on page 28.

Note some conditions require You to notify Us of certain matters. For example See “GC1 Alteration of risk” on page 28. Others require You to seek Our consent before taking certain action, see for example “S2.2 Additional Benefits” on page 45 and “GC2 Assignment” on page 28;

- limits (including time limits) applied to the cover. See for example “S1.3 Limit of Liability” on page 37 and “S2.3 Limit of Liability” on page 46;
- any Excess(s) You have to pay or bear in relation to a claim – See for example “S1.4.10 Application of Excess” on page 39;
- recovery You or We may make in relation to the relevant loss. See for example “S2.4.18 Preventing right of recovery” on page 50.

You need to consider these things to see if the cover is right for You personally as We and SURA Construction do not do this. You should seek advice to help when needed.

If You do not meet Your obligations under the Policy Terms (including if an exclusion applies) We may refuse or reduce what We pay in relation to a claim and/or cancel the Policy, subject to relevant law.

See “When We Can Refuse to Pay or Reduce the Amount We Pay Under a Claim” on page 11 and “Cancellation” on page 28 for further information.

Cancellation Rights

You and We have cancellation rights see page 28.

Average/Underinsurance

In the event of loss or damage covered by this Policy, if it is found that the Declared Value for Mobile Machinery and Equipment and Employee Tools, or the Declared Value for Pre-Existing Property, is less than 80% of the actual sum required to reinstate in accordance with the terms of this Policy, then average will apply and the amount that We will be required to pay will be reduced in the same proportion that 80% of the actual sum required represents to the Declared Value.

When We Can Refuse to Pay or Reduce the Amount We Pay Under a Claim

We may only ever refuse to pay or reduce the amount We pay under a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The situations in which We may refuse to pay or reduce the amount We pay under a claim under the Policy (to the extent permitted by applicable law) include (but are not limited to):

- when You apply for cover (this includes new business, variations and renewals) and You do not comply with Your Duty of Disclosure or obligations not to make a misrepresentation; or
- if You do not comply with or meet a term or condition We can rely on an exclusions or other limitation (All referred to as “terms” when used in the Policy) – See “Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy”;
- if You make a fraudulent claim – See “Fraudulent claims” for more detail;
- where You have not or are not acting in accordance with Your duty of utmost good faith under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) – See “Duty of Utmost Good faith” for more detail.

We may also have cancellation rights in the above circumstances to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Subject to applicable law, the amount of any claim entitlement can also be affected and/or reduced by other things, including any limits (e.g. monetary or time limits) or Excess(es), any outstanding Premium and recoveries You or We might make relevant to a loss as set out in the Policy terms.

See “Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy” for more detail.

Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy

We will only rely on any rights We have regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy to the extent permitted by applicable law (including Our right to refuse or reduce a claim noted above). The law can be complex and We provide a high-level summary below of some key examples on how the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) may affect matters depending on the circumstances. To the extent of any inconsistency the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) will prevail.

Other laws can apply beyond the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) such as the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Australian Securities and Investment Commissions Act 2001 (Cth) and You need to seek Your own advice regarding all relevant legal rights You may have.

If You do not comply with or meet any Policy term

We will only rely on any rights We have regarding the operation of or breach of a Term of the Policy to the extent permitted by law (including Our right to refuse or reduce a claim noted above). You need to seek Your own advice regarding all relevant legal rights You may have.

Terms allowing Us to refuse to pay or reduce a claim (in whole or part) by reason of an act by You or some other person that occurred after the Policy was entered into

Subject to Our rights in relation to Fraudulent claims explained below, by reason of section 54 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), where the effect of the Policy (this includes all terms or conditions, including any exclusion or other limitation) is to allow Us to refuse to pay or reduce a claim (in whole or part) by reason of an act by You or some other person that occurred after the Policy was entered into, We will exercise Our rights under the Policy as explained below (Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details).

Under section 54, an “act” by You or some other person includes an omission and inaction and an act or omission that has the effect of altering the state or condition of the subject-matter of the Policy or of allowing the state or condition of that subject-matter to alter.

How We exercise Our rights where section 54 applies (unless there is a fraudulent claim)

- Where:
 - the act was necessary to protect the safety of a person or to preserve property;
 - it was not reasonably possible for You or the other person not to do the act; or
 - You prove no part of the loss that gave rise to the claim was caused by the act,We will not refuse to pay or reduce the claim by reason only of that act.

- Where the act:
 - could not reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy; or
 - could reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy but You prove that some part of the loss that gave rise to the claim was not caused by the act, so far as it concerns that part of the loss, We may not refuse to pay the claim by reason only of that act, but We can reduce Our liability in respect of the claim by an amount that fairly represents the extent to which Our interests were prejudiced as a result of that act.
- Otherwise, where the act could reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy, We may refuse to pay the claim.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act for full details.)

Terms allowing Us to refuse or reduce a claim because of pre-existing defects or imperfections existing before the Policy was entered into

Only where section 46 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) is applicable to the Policy:

- where a claim is made in respect of a loss that occurred as a result, in whole or in part, of a defect or imperfection in a thing; and
- at the time when the contract was entered into You were not aware of, and a reasonable person in the circumstances could not be expected to have been aware of, the defect or imperfection,

We may not rely on any provision included in the Policy that has the effect of limiting or excluding Our liability under the Policy by reference to the condition, at a time before the Policy was entered into, of the thing. This does not apply if the Policy is in an excluded class to which section 46 does not apply.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Fraudulent claims

In all cases, where a claim is made fraudulently under:

- the Policy; or
- the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) against Us by a person who is not You,

We may refuse payment of the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Under section 56(2) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) a court may, if only a minimal or insignificant part of the claim is made fraudulently and non-payment of the remainder of the claim would be harsh and unfair, order Us to pay, in relation to the claim, such amount (if any) as is just and equitable in the circumstances (Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details).

Duty of Utmost Good Faith

The following can also (where applicable) affect Our and Your rights and obligations regarding the operation of, reliance on, or breach of a term of the Policy:

- section 13 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) requires each party to the Policy to act towards the other party, in respect of any matter arising under or in relation to it, with the utmost good faith.

- section 14 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) provides that if reliance by a party to the Policy on a provision of the Policy would be to fail to act with the utmost good faith, the party may not rely on the provision.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Terms Apply to Extent Enforceable

A term (or part of a term) of the Policy will be applied to the extent is not unenforceable under applicable law.

Cost of this Insurance

In consideration of Premium paid to Us, We will cover You with respect to Your pecuniary interest in an Insured Project and the Named Insured in accordance with this Policy during the Period of Insurance.

The cost of the Policy will be shown on the quotation provided once all required information has been received. The cost of the Policy is calculated based on a number of considerations including the Limit of Liability or sub-limit of liability, nature, breadth and extent of Your business activities, including the type of products You produce, Your insurance history, Your risk management practices and procedures in managing Your potential liability. These factors and the degree to which they affect Your Premium will depend on the information You provide to Us.

The cost of Your Policy is made up of Premium, government taxes such as goods and services tax (GST) and stamp duty, where applicable.

You must pay Your Premium by the due date shown in Your invoice or Policy Schedule. If We do not receive Your Premium by this date or Your payment is dishonoured We may refuse to pay or reduce Your claim and/or cancel the Policy, to the extent permitted by law.

Liability Assumed Under Agreement

Liability cover provided by this Policy does not cover liability which You have agreed to accept, unless You would have been so liable in the absence of such agreement.

Providing Proof

So that Your claim can be assessed quickly You should keep the following:

- receipts or other confirmation of the purchase of Your Insured Property; and
- all service and repair records.

We may ask You for these if You make a claim.

Third Party Beneficiaries

The contracting insureds (Named Insured) and the Insurer are the only parties to the Policy.

No insurance is provided in relation to the interest of any persons not specified as being entitled to benefit under the Policy.

The benefit of the cover under the Policy is extended automatically to Additional Insureds as defined see page 18 by reason of the operation of section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). They are not contracting parties.

Other persons who are not contracting parties to the Policy may be entitled to cover as third party beneficiaries, but only if specified as so entitled and limited only to the extent and interest specified.

The Named Insured must inform Us of the interests of all such third parties (e.g. financiers, lessors) they want to be covered by this insurance and if We agree, We will specify them and the interest to be covered in the Policy Schedule.

Nothing in the Policy is intended to give any such persons (including Additional Insureds) any right to enforce any term of this Policy which that person would not have had but for the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). Their rights and obligations are subject to the operation of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) as it applies to such persons and other applicable law.

Any person entitled to any benefit under the Policy that is not the Named Insured:

- has, in relation to their claim, the same obligations to Us as they would have if they were the Named Insured; and
- may discharge the Named Insured's obligations in relation to the loss, damage or liability.

We also have the same defences to an action by such persons as We would have in an action by the Named Insured including, but not limited to, defences relating to the Named Insured's conduct (whether the conduct occurred before or after the contract was entered into). Any exclusions applying to You also apply to a Third Party Beneficiary claiming under the Policy.

Such persons have no right to cancel or vary the Policy or its cover – only the Named Insured (as the contracting party) and We can do this. If We cancel or vary the Policy or its cover, We do not need to obtain such persons' consent to do so.

We also do not provide any notices in relation to this insurance to such persons as they are not a contracting party to the Policy. We only send notices to the Named Insured which is the only entity We have contractual obligations to under the Policy.

Neither We nor the Named Insured hold anything on trust for, or for the benefit or on behalf of any such persons under this insurance arrangement.

The Named Insured:

- does not act on Our behalf in relation to the insurance;
- is not authorised to provide any financial product advice, recommendations or opinions about the insurance; or
- does not receive any remuneration or other benefits from Us.

Any Third Party Beneficiary needs to read this document and other documents forming the Policy carefully to properly understand the benefits they have access to as non-contracting parties. The insurance cover is subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of the Policy.

Any person who may be entitled to a benefit under the Policy should consider obtaining advice as to whether the benefits are appropriate or useful for their personal needs from a person who is licensed to give such advice. No advice is provided by Us or SURA Construction that the benefits are appropriate or useful for any person's needs. Nothing prevents such persons from entering into other arrangements regarding insurance.

In some cases the Named Insured may specify loss payees We will make payments to (e.g. a financier).

GC7 GST

GC7.1 GST Liability

This Policy has a GST provision in relation to Premium and Our payment to the Named Insured for claims. It may have an impact on how the Named Insured determines the amount of insurance needed. Please read it carefully and seek professional advice if there are any queries about GST and this insurance.

GC7.2 Limit of Liability

All monetary limits in this Policy do not include an amount for GST but may be increased for GST in some circumstances (see below). The Named Insured should have regard to the impact of GST when calculating how much to insure for and obtain tax advice where required.

GC7.3 Claim settlement

Where You are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to a claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under this Policy) and We agree to pay the claim, We will pay for the GST amount. However, if the Limit of Liability is not sufficient to cover the loss, We will only pay the GST amount that relates to the settlement of the claim. We will reduce the GST amount payable by any Input Tax Credits to which You are or would be entitled on a relevant acquisition.

We will pay the GST amount less any Input Tax Credit in addition to the Limit of Liability or other limits shown in the Policy.

Where We make a payment under this Policy as Compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, the amount of payment will be reduced by the amount of any Input Tax Credit that You would have been entitled to, had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.

We will (where relevant) pay Your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by Your business, which is relevant to the claim.

GC7.4 Disclosure – Input Tax Credit entitlement

If You register, or are registered for GST, You are required to inform Us of the entitlement to an Input Tax Credit on the Premium. If You fail to disclose or understate the entitlement, You may be liable for GST on a claim paid. This Policy does not cover You for this GST liability, nor for any fine, penalty or charge to which You may be liable due to Your failure to disclose, or a misstatement made by You in relation to the entitlement to an Input Tax Credit for the Premium.

We agree that this Policy will, in respect of the Contract Works where the principal, owner, or head contractor has effected Contract Works insurance or Liability insurance (the primary insurance), provide to the Named Insured only coverage to pay all amounts in excess of that recoverable under the primary insurance and to pay the difference (if any) between excess or deductible (if any) under the primary insurance and the Excess that would have been applicable under this Policy.
