CONTENT MEDIA (SHORT TERM) PROPOSAL FORM

IMPORTANT NOTICES

The information you provide in this document and through any other documentation, either directly or through your insurance broker, will be relied upon by the insurers to decide whether or not to accept your insurance as proposed and if so, on what terms.

Every question must be answered fully, truthfully and accurately. If space is insufficient for your answer, please use additional sheets, sign and date each one and attach them to this document.

If you do not understand or if you have any questions regarding any matter in this document, including these Important Notices, please contact us or your insurance broker before signing the Declaration at the end of this document. Unless we have confirmed in writing that temporary cover has been arranged, no insurance is in force until the risk proposed has been accepted in writing by us and you have paid or agreed to pay the premium.

AGENT OF INSURERS

SURA Film and Entertainment Pty Ltd acts as the agent of the insurer and not as your agent when issuing insurance policies, dealing with or settling any claims. This is an important document, please read it carefully.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

This Policy is subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Act). Under that Act You have a Duty of Disclosure.

Before You take out insurance with Us, You have a duty to tell Us of everything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms. If You are not sure whether something is relevant You should inform Us anyway.

You have the same duty to inform Us of those matters before You renew, extend, vary, or reinstate Your contract of insurance. The duty applies until the Policy is entered into, or where relevant, renewed, extended, varied or reinstated (Relevant Time). If anything changes between when the answers are provided to Us or disclosures are made and the Relevant Time, You need to tell Us.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters that:

- reduce the risk;
- are common knowledge;
- We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business, ought to know; or
- We have indicated We do not want to know.

If You do not comply with Your duty of disclosure, We may be entitled to:

- reduce Our liability for any claim;
- cancel the contract;
- refuse to pay the claim; or
- avoid the contract from its beginning, if Your non-disclosure was fraudulent.

PRIVACY

We are committed to protecting your privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs), which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information.

Our Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose and handle your personal information as well as your rights to access and correct your personal information and make a complaint for any breach of the APPs.

A copy of our Privacy Policy is located on our website at www.sura.com.au. Please access and read this policy.

If you have any queries about how we handle your personal information or would prefer to have a copy mailed to you, please ask us.

If you wish to access your file please ask us.

GENERAL INSURANCE CODE OF PRACTICE

We proudly support the General Insurance Code of Practice (the 'Code'). The purpose of the Code is to raise the standards of practice and service in the general insurance industry.

The objectives of the Code are:

- to promote better, more informed relations between insurers and their customers;
- to improve consumer confidence in the general insurance industry;
- to provide fair and effective mechanisms for the resolution of complaints and disputes between insurers and their customers;
- to commit insurers and the professionals they rely upon to higher standards of customer service; and
- to promote continuous improvement of the general insurance industry through education and training.

For further information on the Code, please visit www.codeofpractice.com.au or alternatively You can request a brochure on the Code from Us.
